

Infolock Cookies Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Our website uses cookies.
- 1.2 We will ask you to consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy when you first visit our website.

2. Credit

- 2.1 This document was created using a template from SEQ Legal (<http://www.seqlegal.com>).

3. About cookies

- 3.1 A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.
- 3.2 Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.
- 3.3 Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.
- 3.4 Cookies can be used by web servers to identify and track users as they navigate different pages on a website and identify users returning to a website.

4. Our cookies

- 4.1 We use both session and persistent cookies on our website.

5. Analytics cookies

- 5.1 We use Google Analytics to analyse the use of our website.
- 5.2 Our analytics service provider generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies.
- 5.3 The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of our website.
- 5.4 Our analytics service provider's privacy policy is available at: <http://www.google.com/policies/privacy>

6. Third party cookies

- 6.1 Our website MAY also use third party cookies.

7. Blocking cookies
